

The Chinese Proficiency Tests (Hanyu Shuiping Kaoshi, or HSK) is a standardized international Chinese language test to measure the ability of non-native Chinese speakers to communicate in Chinese in daily lives, academic and working settings. We offer training courses from HSK level 1 to level 6. The course focuses on the Chinese language expression ability of participants through comprehensive language teaching. It is aimed at progressing the logical application of Chinese, as well as achieving a higher level of verbal skills, written skills (and good results in the HSK test). Meanwhile, learners will also be able to gain knowledge of China, one of the world's first civilizations, and Chinese culture. The course will be taught by English-speaking teachers from China here at the Technical University in Zvolen! Other Chinese courses can also be offered according to interest.

Find it a daunting task to learn a language that is completely different from your mother tongue? Well, listen to what this guy has to say at <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=UAHSBy1hzmM>; or the American girl at <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=iGD7pF5iTd8>. How fluent she is in Chinese!

Still not convinced? Well, Lucy, a Slovakian girl living in Hangzhou, where the headquarters of Alibaba Group is located, may give you more confidence. The first step is always the hardest. Now all you need to do is to take the little questionnaire at <https://www.survio.com/survey/d/V8V3A9P9C2K2V9H7S> (TUZVO students)/ <https://www.survio.com/survey/d/D5B7L8W8P8G6O1P9I> (Non-students) and enroll in the Chinese course. Someday in the future you may be grateful to yourself for the move! By the way, the Center for Language Education and Cooperation in China offers scholarships to eligible applicants to study at Chinese universities 😊
